

Washington State Library

Collect, preserve, and digitize historical books, maps, and newspapers from and about Washington State.

Historical Newspapers

Historical Maps

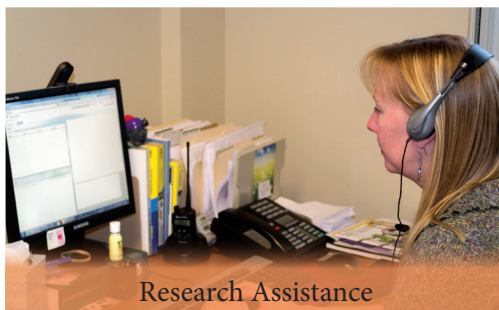

Digital Literacy

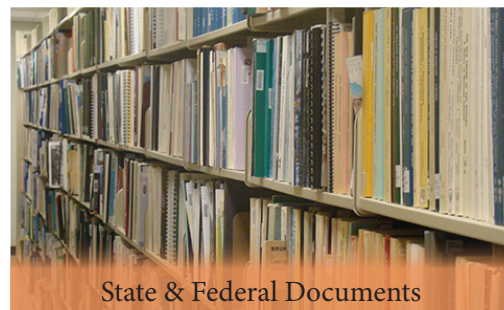

Early Learning

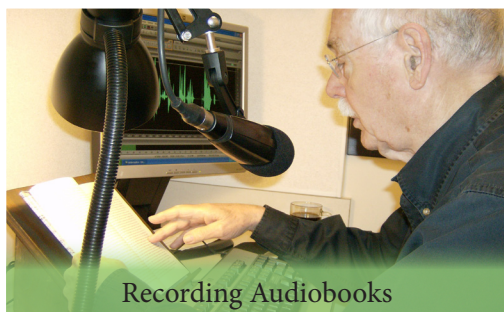

Promote open government by collecting and making state and federal government information available to the public.

Research Assistance

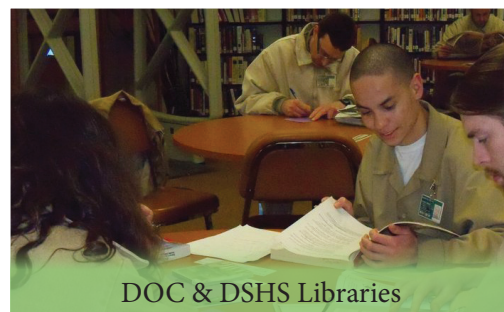

State & Federal Documents

Recording Audiobooks

Provide library services for vulnerable populations, visually and physically impaired, prisoners, and psychiatric patients.

DOC & DSHS Libraries

Find out what we can do for you!

Washington State Library, a division of the Office of the Secretary of State
Point Plaza East, 6880 Capitol Blvd SE, Tumwater, Wash. 98501
www.sos.wa.gov/library * 360.704.5200

Established 1853: Washington's oldest cultural institution.

WASHINGTON STATE LIBRARY

Washington
Secretary of State
SAM REED